Warden Danny Muise called the meeting to order at 6:02 p.m.

2. Approval of Agenda

By consensus, the agenda was approved as presented.

3. Department Head Report – Marsha d'Eon, Finance Department

Director of Finance Marsha d'Eon is in to present the operating and capital reserve financial reports 9-months in, the Municipality is projecting a surplus of $283,485, $270,226 of that is from the operating fund and the rest is the wastewater systems. Revenues are currently projecting $134,166 above the operating budget which is prorated to the half year point. Approximately 70% of the increase is due to the Deed Transfer Tax Revenues that continues to exceed expectations. The remaining areas that are trending higher include the HST rebate and interest and penalties on taxes. The expenditures are currently lower than expected at $144,875 lower from the forecasted budget.
