PURPOSE

To provide an update on the upcoming Municipal Election on October 19, 2024. This election will once again offer hybrid voting options, similar to previous municipal elections. Residents will have the convenience of voting from home using the internet, either through a phone or a computer. However, for those who prefer to vote in person, paper ballots will be available at polling stations on Election Day.

Key Dates

August 29, 2024, to September 10, 2024: Nominations for candidates will be accepted by the Returning Officer.

September 11, 2024: Last day to withdraw your name as a candidate.

October 9, 2024, at 2:00 PM: Electors will be able to vote via phone or internet. (YARMOUTH COUNTY)

October 10, 2024: First advance poll (Tusket location only).

October 15, 2024: Second advance poll (Tusket location only).

October 19, 2024: Election Day. There will be three polling stations:
- Tusket Municipal Office (Districts 1, 4, and 5)
- Wedgeport Fire Hall (Districts 2 and 3)
- West Pubnico Legion (Districts 6, 7, and 8)

- 9)

Other Considerations

- October 11 to October 17: We will conduct a mobile poll to assist residents in different districts who need help voting or do not have access to the internet or a computer.

- A mobile poll will be arranged for Nakile and Pont du Marais.

- Paper ballots will only be available on Election Day (not during advance polls or mobile polls).

- Residents can call or email us to verify if they are on the voters list.
